

Language Allocation Guidelines Elementary, ELA-E Denver Public Schools

All ELA-E classrooms have a designated ELD block. Students are grouped and regrouped (vertical and/or horizontal grade levels) based on linguistic instructional needs, which includes listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Teachers use the DPS ELD curriculum (that includes Avenues) to differentiate instruction to address the linguistic and transitioning needs of ELLs.